Qualifications and Certification

A Facilitator is an independent, nonpartisan attorney, licensed to practice law in North Carolina and admitted to the applicable district, who has demonstrable skill and experience in consumer bankruptcy loss mitigation to assist the bankruptcy court with facilitating compliance by the parties with the Loan Modification Management Program.

By submitting this application, you certify that you have reviewed the qualifications below and are able to competently and effectively administer the role of a Facilitator.

- 1.) You have experience in the practice of consumer bankruptcy in the applicable district, as an attorney representing consumer debtors, mortgage servicers, or as a trustee;
- 2.) You have knowledge of the forms and supporting documents required by Creditors to complete a loss mitigation analysis;
- 3.) You have an understanding of the various loss mitigation programs offered by Creditors and the terms of their availability to Debtors;
- 4.) You have the ability to accept electronic payment for the Facilitator fees;
- 5.) You have competence in computer technology and use of the Portal; and
- 6.) You have sufficient staff dedicated to the LMM to ensure oversight of submission of documents to the Portal by the Required Parties and compliances with these procedures.

The Bankruptcy Administrator may, at his discretion, make inquiry as to the applicant's qualifications to serve as a facilitator. Submission of an Application does not guarantee inclusion on the list of approved facilitators.
