  - (e) A statement that, upon completion of the credit counseling session, the Agency will provide a certification of credit counseling to the client.
19. An approved Agency may state that it is approved to provide credit counseling services as required under the Bankruptcy Code. However, any advertisement that refers to such approval shall only be phrased in the following manner: "Approved to issue certificates in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of an Agency's services." Approved Agencies will not use the Bankruptcy Administrator's seal, the Bankruptcy Court's seal, or any seal of the United States or a likeness thereof.
20. It will assist the Bankruptcy Administrator in identifying and investigating suspected fraud and abuse by any party participating in bankruptcy credit counseling briefings or bankruptcy process.
21. Any forms, agreements, contracts, or other materials provided to clients will not limit clients' right to seek damages against the Agency, as set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 111(g)(2).
22. It will refer clients seeking a counseling course only to Agencies that have been approved by the Bankruptcy Administrator to provide such services.
23. It will not disclose or provide to a credit reporting agency any information concerning whether a client has received or sought credit counseling from the Agency; nor sell information about any client to any third party without the client's prior written approval; nor expose the client to commercial advertising as part of the credit counseling briefing; nor market or sell financial products or services during the credit counseling briefing (though it may generally discuss all available financial products and services).
24. It will seek approval from the Bankruptcy Administrator by submitting an amended application before: engaging an independent contractor to provide credit counseling on behalf of the Agency; making or implementing any increase in fees, contributions, or payments received from clients for credit counseling; making or implementing any change in its fee policy; any expansion into federal judicial districts; or making or implementing any material change to credit counseling sessions or any method of delivery.
25. It consents to the release and disclosure of the Agency's name on the approved list and the publication of the Agency's contact information.

26. The Agency understands that failure to comply with any of the foregoing acknowledgements, agreements, and declarations may result in denial of the application or removal from the Bankruptcy Administrator’s list of approved Agencies.

I HEREBY DECLARE under penalty of perjury that the foregoing representations are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
